

123 E. Broughton Street, Savannah, GA • 912-644-7896
www.MarshallHouse.com | www.HistoricInnsOfSavannah.com

Historic Hotel, Built in 1851

- 65 guest rooms; 3 spacious suites
- Unique balcony rooms on Broughton St
- Doors open to Broughton Street shopping
- Guests enjoy wine and entertainment in the library every afternoon
- Complementary breakfast
- Unlimited WiFi throughout the hotel
- Elevator & accessible rooms
- Full-service bar and restaurant, 45 Bistro, on-site
- Meeting & event space (3 rooms totaling 2,675 square feet) for groups of 6-200
- Valet parking services

Why Stay at The Marshall House?

The Marshall House is Savannah's oldest operating hotel and has an authentic historic atmosphere that's not to be missed. At the end of the Civil War, Union troops led by General Sherman occupied it, and it was a hospital during two Yellow Fever epidemics. Today, the hotel is known for superior hospitality and its great location on Broughton Street. It's been voted Savannah's Best Hotel, Best Boutique Hotel, and Best Downtown Hotel, has been featured on the Travel Channel, and is a top-ranked Savannah hotel on TripAdvisor.

The Marshall House is Ideal for:

- Romantic celebrations
- Savannah Weddings
- History Buffs / Paranormal enthusiasts
- Unique Experience Seekers
- Shopping & Dining
- Family getaways

