

Eliza Thompson House

SAVANNAH

5 W. Jones Street, Savannah, GA • 912-236-3620
www.ElizaThompsonHouse.com | www.HistoricInnsOfSavannah.com

Historic B&B/Inn, Built in 1847

- 25 well-appointed guest rooms
- Chef-prepared breakfasts served in a private, brick-walled garden courtyard
- Wine and hors d'oeuvres reception each afternoon
- Homemade desserts in the evening
- Private bathrooms with luxury bath products and bath robes
- Located on Jones Street, one of Savannah's best-loved historic residential neighborhoods
- Less than a five-minute walk to Forsyth Park and one block from Mrs. Wilkes' restaurant

Why Stay at The Eliza Thompson House?

Built in 1847, the Eliza Thompson House is the oldest inn in the Historic Inns of Savannah Collection. It was the first house built on Savannah's popular Jones Street and now tops the charts as one of Savannah's best-loved places to stay. It offers visitors a private, peaceful retreat just a short walk from the city's historical attractions and is perfect for guests looking to experience life in a truly historic neighborhood.

The Eliza Thompson House is Ideal for:

- Romantic celebrations
- Unique experience seekers
- Shopping & dining
- Exploring the gardens and homes in Savannah

